

Give my Regards

Yes,
one must be
madly in love with sound
madly in love with sound
just as the bees are in love with Being.

Family of Acrobats

One of the 7 wonders of the world began to realize that everything else was a wonder at which point everything else became more wonderful.

Amorous Intimacy

Skipping the light fantastic from thought to thought as butterfly from flower to flower as angel from realm of love to realm of love the ascending light conversed with the descending light.

JOHN TAGLIABUE

The Masquerades of the Reader begin to take up Action

The words
like masks,
some heavy, majestic, brooding, frightful, some colorful, fantastic, zaney, theatrical,
some made of the forests, some made of the memories of birds, some made of dying kings, some made of drunken sailors' songs,
the words
like masks
 were waiting for the Great Actors,
 were used by
 the Great Dancers.
